NEWS SUMMARY.

City Affairs. -The connection between the Darby Pas-senger Railway and the Chesnut and Walnut streets road was made yesterday, and cars belonging to the last-named road passed over the entire route at intervals of a half hour.

—The monthly meeting of the Board of Trade was held last evening, at their rooms, Chesnut street, above Fifth, President John Walsh in the Above Fifth, President John Welsh in the chair. After discussion upon subjects which were before the National Board of Trade, the Chair appointed the following gentlemen as the Committee of the Month:—Messrs. Buzby, Tatem, and McCammon,

-The Finance Committee of Councils held a meeting last evening, and agreed to report in favor of a loan for $500,000 for the erection of school buildings; also in favor of a loan of $700,009 for the building of an iron bridge over the Schuylkill at Callowhill street. The Park loan bill, which was referred back to them, was not finally acted

-A meeting of the stockholders of the Thirteenth and Fifteenth Streets Railway Company was held yesterday, at the depot, to accept the supplement to their charter lately passed by the Legislature, allowing the company to lay a track on Locust street, from Thirteenth to Fifteenth streets, so as to afford accommodation to persons visiting Herticultural Hall and the Academy of Music. The supplement was unanimously accepted, after which the meeting adjourned.

—At 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Mrs. Elizabeth Haines and her daughter, Laura Haines, had a hearing before Alderman Kerr, upon the charge of obtaining goods by false pretenses, and were bound over in the sum of $2000 bail to answer. The arrest of the defendants was recorded in yesterday's Evening TELEGRAPH.

—James Welsh, forty years old, residing near Seventh and Bedford streets, was beaten about the head and face and much injured, alleged to have been done by a man named Dennis Quinn, in a fight.

Bridget Hogan, thirty-six years old, residing at No. 714 Shippen street, fell down stairs and was much injured.

Peter McGarvin, thirty-seven years old, residing at No. 917 North Delaware avenue, had one of his feet injured by a bar of iron falling on it, at Weury & Mitchellson's works, in Kensington. All the sufferers were admitted into the Pennsylvania Hospital.

—Ann Anderson, aged about sixty years, was run over yesterday afternoon, at Sixth and Lombard streets, by a Lombard and South streets passenger car, and instantly killed. The deceased was crossing the street, and as the car approached, the driver gave the alarm, but before he could stop the car, the woman was knocked down and the wheels passed over her neck. The driver, Alexander Parkhill, was arrested, to await the action of the Coroner. The deceased resided in Hallowell street, below Carpenter.

-A meeting of the Belmont Avenue Plank Road Company was held yesterday at No. 414 Walnut street. Its object was to consider the propriety of selling its franchises to this city. A committee was created to confer with the Park Commission upon the subject, and instructed to report at a subsequent meeting.

—In the case of Hugh McKinney the Coroner's jury yesterday rendered the following verdict:—The said Hugh McKinney came to his death from injuries received on the night of March 16, 1870, by a fall, while intoxicated, at the southeast corner of Eighteenth and South streets.

Domestic Affairs. -Gold closed yesterday at 112%.

-Bailey's sureties are good for the amount of his alleged defalcations. —The chances of General Ames getting his seat as Senator from Mississippi are in proving. -The House Military Committee recommend that all brokers dealing in cadetships shall be criminally prosecuted.

-A bill to reorganize the system of governing the Indians has been completed by the House Indian Committee. -Both the Senate and House Foreign Relations Committees meet to-day to consider the question of recognizing Cuba. -An election to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Golladay is ordered by Governor Stevenson for the 25th of April. -An attempt was made at the Cuban fair at Key West, on Saturday, to assassinate the brother of the supposed murderer of Cas-

-The Speaker of the Tennessee Senate will to-day address the House Reconstruction Committee against Congressional interference with that State.

-The President has invited a number of Senators to the White House to discuss the St. Domingo treaty, which comes before the Senate to-morrow.
—Should the coal operators make the contemplated reduction of wages to $2.50 on the 1st of April, a general strike of the miners will, it is said, be the result. -The Military Committee will send in its report to the House to-day. It will recommend that all cadets appointed to either West Point or Annapolis from other than the districts in which they reside shall be stricken from the rolls. -Collector Bailey's defalcations amount, it is said by District Attorney Pierrepont, to $120,000. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Bailey, Childs, and Frederick Low. Childs, who was Bailey's right-hand man, has made a statement exculpatory of himself and Low, and throwing all the irregularities on Bailey.

Foreign Affairs.

-The steamship Samaria reached Queenstown on Sunday night, with all on board well. -Pio Nono is using every means in his power to conciliate the opponents of infalli--Prim and his party have come out victors from a hard fight with the Unionists in the Cortes. —Adelina Patti narrowly escaped a horrible death on a Russian railroad recently, the car in which she was sitting taking fire. -Louis Blanc says the bill for the enforcement of the laws in Ireland, now before the House of Commons, will place that country -A reply, La Pays asserts, has been received from Rome to Count Daru's note, in which the demand for the representation of France in the Council is refused. -Prince Pierre Bonaparte's trial has commenced. Groussett one of the witnesses behaved so foolishly that he was pronounced guilty of contempt, and remanded to prison. —A political crisis is imminent in Spaiu. Admiral Topete has resigned, and Serrano, it is asserted, will give up the Regency. What course the Progressionists will take is doubt-

—A leading homosopathic physician in Jack-sonville, Ill., has sued an allopath for libel, lay-ing damages at $5000, which is not a small dose. The allopath called him "a chariatan, charm-dispenser, necromancer, Nero of sanc-

The Spanish Government has given notice that from the 18th day of January, 1870, a light would be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected at Sumaya, about 12 miles to the westward of San Sebastian, north coast of Spain. The light is a fixed white light, elevated 135 feet above the level of the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of whiles. The illuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the fifth order. The tower, 60 feet high, is triangular in shape, and is attached to the keeper's dwelling; both are painted yellow. It is situated on Mount Atalaza, about 140 yards from the shore, in lat 43 deg. 18 min. 45 sec. N., long. 2 deg. 15 min. 30 sec. W. from Greenwich.

The Greek Government has given notice that from the 18th day of January, 1870, a light will be exhibited from a lighthouse recently erected on the north coast of Force Island, Mediterranean. The light is a fixed white light, elevated 96 feet above the sea, and in clear weather should be seen from a distance of 18 miles. The filuminating apparatus is dioptric, or by lenses of the fourth order. The position, as given, is in lat. 37 deg. 31 min. 45 sec. N., iong. 23 deg. 25 min. 45 sec. E.

By order. W. B. SHUBRICK, Chairman, Treasury Department, Office Lighthouse Board, Washington, D. C., Mar. 2, 1870.
